

The State Fair.

Reported for the Daily Gazette.

While going a second time over the Fair grounds, we saw many interesting articles which had previously escaped our notice. A Thompson, of Palmyra, had a machine for churning which was a curiosity. It would be downright fun to churn with such an apparatus.

T. G. & M. W. Palmer, of Chicago, exhibited a haystacker which took the rag off in a few of premiums.

An ingenious latch and gate fastener shown by W. W. Robinson of Ripon, was not only ingenious but a capital thing.

Shepard's improved blind hinge which enables one to open the blind from the inside, looked like a good thing.

There were two or three wagons on exhibition, but one called the Jerusalem wagon was both new and a good thing.

It could not fail of attracting the attention of farmers for the qualities below named.

It is lighter than a common two horse wagon; 2d, it will run at least one-third easier than any wagon of its weight; 3d, it will carry one-third more load than any wagon of its weight; 4th, there is no side motion to the tongue, and will not therefore knock a team about on a rough road; 5th, the wheels are oiled the same as common machinery; 6th, the team applies the brake; 7th, it can be made cheaper than a common wagon, and is also more durable.

Among other things was the great trial of Stewart's cook stove, on exhibition by F. S. Barrows, in connection with a variety of parlor stoves. The trial came off in the manufacturers hall in the presence of an immense crowd of interested spectators.

About 150 cubic inches of wood were used in baking 40 pound loaves of bread, a large roast of beef, and a generous quantity of steak. Such surprising facts as this must certainly make the Stewart stove the pet of every household. A number of our citizens have bought them within a year and declare they can almost save their cost in a year, in the reduced quantity of fuel burned, alone, while the worst vexation of bad bread and poor cooking is also avoided. The writer of this item has also used in his own family, and considers it an immense saver of fuel.

Mrs. Raynor had on exhibition the Florence sewing machine, which takes high rank among these useful articles of domestic economy. The facility with which it turns out work, from two to three thicknesses of leather, and even a shingle, to the thinnest gauze without changing the needle, is truly wonderful.

Kidney's patent mop, exhibited by Mr. J. H. Kinnell, of Kenosha really beats all in that line. Its merits consist in being able to wring it dry without bunching the hands to it.

Daly's washing machine elicited general admiration and bore off the premium.

A combined footstool and lantern of C. W. Smith, of Janesville, is a good thing and handy to have in the family.

The rock drilling machine of Mr. L. M. Gilmore was well worth of examination. It is an immense improvement over the old machines for the same purpose, striking 65 or 70 blows to 20 of others. It scarcely ever gets out of repair and three-fifths of a horse power with the assistance of one man operates it readily. It will drill from 6 to 40 feet per day, of ordinary fire stone, striking about 4000 blows per hour.

It would take several newspapers to speak in detail of all the curious and useful articles which met the eye on the grounds, and we may as well wind up at this point as any other, seeing we cannot spare the space or the room to pursue the subject further.

Mayor Gunther of New York, vetoed a resolution of the Board of Aldermen, providing for the illumination of the city, in honor of our recent victories. From his disloyal standpoint, he could see nothing in these victories to rejoice over.

This is the same Gunther who refused to encourage emigration, because the foreigners arriving on our shore might fill the ranks of our army or supply the labor market; and also the same Gunther who presided at the recent McClellan ratification meeting in New York. If Lee should win a victory, this Democratic Mayor Gunther would be glad to have a general jollification in the Metropolis.

B. E. Taylor says of Gen. Sheridan: "There is no waste timber about Sheridan—not much physically, but snugly put together. A square face, a warm, black eye, a pleasant smile, a ranch of under jaw, showing that when he will, he will, you may depend on't; black hair trimmed round like a garden border, no hyperion curl about him any more than there was about Cromwell's troopers, and altogether impressing you with the truth that there is about as much energy packed away in about the smallest space that you ever saw in your life."

The Vanderbilt Ready for Sea.—The steamship Vanderbilt, which has been in New York for a long time refitting, is again ready for sea. The improvements will probably enable her to increase her ordinary high rate of speed, and it is considered likely that the Vanderbilt will resume the service which she left when laid up for repairs—the search for rebel privateers.

A magnificent iron-clad frigate, called the Selatoupa, was launched at Cronstadt, Russia, on the 24th ultimo. She is 300 feet in length, has iron plates 4 inches thick, and draws 20 feet of water.

Forty-five years ago one thousand bushels of potatoes were delivered at the State Prison in Concord, N. H., at ten cents a bushel. They don't sell potatoes at that rate now-a-days.

The Louisville Journal says: "General Allen has received from St. Louis an infernal machine, which, from its ingenious construction and destructible power, is calculated to do much damage. To the outward eye the machine is simply a common hand valve, such a one as may be found in the possession of any traveler who carries no more than a single change of clothing in his wanderings. Opening the valve, in one side a common eight day clock, without hands, is exposed to view. It is curiously embedded in rims stuffed with tow so as to smother the sound of the working of the delicate machinery. Around the rim, too, saturated with strong combustible fluids, is closely packed. The second half of the valve contains nothing but this same dangerous combustible material. A tube of powder, communicating with a vessel of fluid, is firmly fastened to one of the rims. A trigger, igniting a match, is connected with the tube. The clock is wound up, and set to run down and explode the combustibles at any designated hour between one and twelve. The valve is closed, and the timepiece occupies the centre of the contrivance. At the centre of the contrivance, attached to a trigger is pulled by the rebound of a spring, the match ignites, an explosion ensues, and a sheet of fiery flame is scattered for yards around. The combustibles burn with great fury and power, and nothing but an application of sand can smother the flames.

"The machine in the possession of General Allen was placed in the government building at St. Louis by some scoundrel, expecting to ensure its destruction. Fortunately the explosion attracted a squad of soldiers, who, with great difficulty, succeeded in extinguishing the flames before much damage had been done. The invention is one of the most dangerous that has as yet been brought to light. There is no doubt that the disastrous fires that recently occurred in our city were caused through this destructive agency. Its outward appearance is such as to excite no suspicion, and may safely be carried by any traveler. The simple setting of it in a building, with machinery in running order, may cause an explosion and terrible conflagration in the most unsuspected quarters, and at the most quiet hour of night. There is scarcely any sure way to guard against accidents by this infernal contrivance."

Fruits of a False Policy.
Missouri is just now finding out what Missouri is to be placed upon a considerable portion of her people. The telegraph informs us that forty citizens left one small town in the southeast, day before yesterday, to unite with the invaders of the State under Price and Shelby, and in our own county there are neighborhoods which have been nearly cleaned of horses by patriots flying to the same quarter. These patriots are citizens of Missouri, and have received the full benefit of the protection of her laws. More than that, they are good "Union men"—the only peculiarity being that they have been bitterly opposed to Radical Union men. They have taken an active interest in the Government of the State, have never failed to vote, and have been particularly solicitous for a "free election." They are the men who have been clamorous for a free election or a free fight, and have surrounded the commander of the Department with agents protesting against soldiers being allowed at the polls on election day. They have now concluded to take the free fight first. The reason they join Price is because they are opposed to the "abolition war." They are still good Union men, and expect to return home again. If Price prevails they will be on the safe side; and if Price is beaten, they will return thousands have returned before, with the assurance that the Conservative party will be ready to receive them; and its leaders, the guerrillas, the Guitars, the Rollinses, the Sulsburies, the Phelps, &c., will protest that they are the soundest Union men in the State. They feel confident that this will be the case, because they know it has been the case. They feel that taking up arms against the Government is a very slight offense, because it has been treated as such.

It is to us a matter of no surprise that hundreds and thousands of our people join hands with the invader, as soon as he comes among us. We have long predicted that it would be so. It is almost the necessary consequence of the policy which has been pursued in Missouri, by both State and Federal authorities. That policy has been such as to make it safer to be disloyal than to be loyal—to make it safer to side with the Confederacy than with the Union. Of course, under such circumstances, it is to the interest of Missourians to be disloyal rather than to stand by the Government—to rally around Price rather than around Rosecrans.

All that is needed to put a stop to this thing is to change the policy of dealing with traitors. Let it be known that whoever serves a traitor now, will be treated as a traitor hereafter—a traitor at his home—a traitor to the polls—a traitor wherever he may be found; and that conservative politicians will not be allowed to secure him immunity from a traitor's punishment. Price will then get very few recruits from Missouri. Missouri Democrat.

It is announced by Ben. Wood's New York Daily News and by Sam. Medary's Columbus (O.) Crisis—leading peace-at-any-price organs—that a Convention of "Peace Democrats" of the Western States, and all others who choose to attend, will be held at Cincinnati, on the 18th of October. It will probably be held in secret, its objects being evidently treasonable.

The N. Y. Post's Washington correspondence asserts that Government has no knowledge of the alleged peace conference between Sumner and the Georgia officials. JEFF DAVIS, however, has found it advisable to visit the State and look after its rulers and Hood's army. He was at Marion on the 22d.

Postmasters now receive fixed salaries. They are divided into classes. The first class get $4,000, the second $3,000, the third $2,000, the fourth $1,000, the fifth class to receive $100. All of these are to vary $1,000 lower than above rates, except the last.

Forty-five years ago one thousand bushels of potatoes were delivered at the State Prison in Concord, N. H., at ten cents a bushel. They don't sell potatoes at that rate now-a-days.

The Nashville (N. H.) Gazette says: "Two or three weeks ago a man in this city was so poor that he was unable to pay the rent of a house, and is being very warm weather, he and his family camped out in the open air. Last week he enlisted in the heavy artillery, and was seeking to purchase a farm to invest his $1,200 bounty in."

To induce the officers at Camp Parole, Annapolis, to remain within the jurisdiction of the hospital enclosures, a billiard room, sutler's store, barber's shop, tailor's shop, etc., are provided for their amusement and accommodation. These, with their fine quarters and the pleasant situation of the grounds, leave but little inducement to visit the city.

Mr. Nicholas Smith, one of the defenders of Baltimore in 1814, died on Saturday last, at the age of eighty-four years. He came to this country from Germany when a young man, and accumulated a handsome fortune. During the attack of the British forces of Baltimore, he took an active part in the defense of his adopted city, being a member of Captain Sadtler's celebrated German Yeagers.

The proposition to build a horse-railroad in Portland, Me., on a route on which a line of omnibuses could not be supported, subjected its projectors to the jeers of the multitude. It was built, however, and in the month of July carried 97,72 passengers—more than 2,000 a day.

The Free Military School in Philadelphia is closed for want of funds. It has sent four hundred and sixty-three students to Washington, all of whom have passed the Examining Board, three of them as colonels, seven as lieutenant-colonels, fifteen as majors.

In East Boston on Monday, the "Old Summer House," situated at the junction of Sumner and Webster streets, fell to the ground, a perfect wreck of what was once the handsomest structure on Noddie's Island. The building was very old, and for a long time had been unoccupied.

Nine hundred pounds of beef were consumed in two meals at the Citizens' Volunteer Hospital, in Philadelphia, by nine hundred and thirty-seven sick and wounded soldiers, who arrived at the hospital from the Baltimore hospitals on Saturday evening.

There is a great crop of tobacco in Massachusetts this season. Many fields will yield more than a ton to the acre.

The number of physicians in the United States is 22,542; of lawyers, 33,103; of clergymen, 33,623.

It is our decided opinion that among all those physicians making old complaints a special treatment, none has accomplished more than Dr. V. Clarence Price, the Analytical Physician. He understands the human system, the causes of disease and their cure. He has had many years experience in the treatment of chronic diseases and has profited by it, learned by many examinations to locate the spot where disease has concentrated its efforts, and to prescribe the right means to cure. No physician can cure all cases, but we know Dr. Price cures the majority that comes under his treatment, and has relieved many who had despaired of a recovery. We are satisfied that those who treat with Dr. Price will be in safe and competent hands, and not be trifled with. From the Editor of the Kalamazoo (Mich.) Gazette.

Dr. Price has visited Janesville regularly for some four years. Saturday and Sunday, the 10th and 11th of October, will be again at Janesville, Hyatt House, for consultation with those afflicted with chronic diseases. Those with difficulties likely to assume a serious form, should not wait but advise with Dr. Price.

Mr. Nicholas Smith, one of the defenders of Baltimore in 1814, died on Saturday last, at the age of eighty-four years. He came to this country from Germany when a young man, and accumulated a handsome fortune. During the attack of the British forces of Baltimore, he took an active part in the defense of his adopted city, being a member of Captain Sadtler's celebrated German Yeagers.

The proposition to build a horse-railroad in Portland, Me., on a route on which a line of omnibuses could not be supported, subjected its projectors to the jeers of the multitude. It was built, however, and in the month of July carried 97,72 passengers—more than 2,000 a day.

The Free Military School in Philadelphia is closed for want of funds. It has sent four hundred and sixty-three students to Washington, all of whom have passed the Examining Board, three of them as colonels, seven as lieutenant-colonels, fifteen as majors.

In East Boston on Monday, the "Old Summer House," situated at the junction of Sumner and Webster streets, fell to the ground, a perfect wreck of what was once the handsomest structure on Noddie's Island. The building was very old, and for a long time had been unoccupied.

Nine hundred pounds of beef were consumed in two meals at the Citizens' Volunteer Hospital, in Philadelphia, by nine hundred and thirty-seven sick and wounded soldiers, who arrived at the hospital from the Baltimore hospitals on Saturday evening.

There is a great crop of tobacco in Massachusetts this season. Many fields will yield more than a ton to the acre.

The number of physicians in the United States is 22,542; of lawyers, 33,103; of clergymen, 33,623.

It is our decided opinion that among all those physicians making old complaints a special treatment, none has accomplished more than Dr. V. Clarence Price, the Analytical Physician. He understands the human system, the causes of disease and their cure. He has had many years experience in the treatment of chronic diseases and has profited by it, learned by many examinations to locate the spot where disease has concentrated its efforts, and to prescribe the right means to cure. No physician can cure all cases, but we know Dr. Price cures the majority that comes under his treatment, and has relieved many who had despaired of a recovery. We are satisfied that those who treat with Dr. Price will be in safe and competent hands, and not be trifled with. From the Editor of the Kalamazoo (Mich.) Gazette.

Dr. Price has visited Janesville regularly for some four years. Saturday and Sunday, the 10th and 11th of October, will be again at Janesville, Hyatt House, for consultation with those afflicted with chronic diseases. Those with difficulties likely to assume a serious form, should not wait but advise with Dr. Price.

SAWYER'S CRYSTAL BLUE, AND BLEACHING PREPARATION.—This Preparation is much superior and cheaper than any other Blue, requiring no preparation for use, and is the only article extant for bleaching and restoring clothes, yellowed by age, or had washing, to a pure white, without injury. It does not settle in the water and curdles, giving them a "muddy blue" color, like indigo, but is perfectly soluble, leaving the water clear; and imparts a delicate blue-white tint to articles, without depositing any sediment or stain, and is warranted not to injure the most delicate fabric, and when known by housekeepers will supersede all others.

It has now been in use in the N. E. States for over ten years, and invariably given satisfaction, and is of the same standard quality as when first introduced, but owing to the numerous cheap and worthless imitations that have been put into the market, we have been compelled to adopt the new PATENT SAFETY BOXES which cannot be imitated; and being put in this style it is more economical than other Blues, as there is no waste, the arrangement of the Boxes being such that the slightest quantity can be used if necessary.

CONRAD & YANKER are the sole agents for the above preparation in this county. Price 15 cts. per box. The Trade supplied at a liberal discount.

LIABILITIES.

Loans unpaid, and all other liabilities of every description	$23,591 25
The security given, which is already large, will constantly increase with every successful operation. This is exhibited clearly in the following statement, showing the position of the company in each year since the new system of dividing profits was adopted: Not assets supported by dividends.

July, 1859	$20,000 00
1861	20,000 00
1862	20,000 00

1864	20,000 00

The insured has no liability whatever while obtaining these dividends. This company has reserved the right to issue policies which do not participate in the profits, and such policies will be issued to those who prefer it at prices as low as any company can insure, and at the same time present permanent security to their customers.

GEORGE T. HOPE, President. J. H. JAMISON, Secretary. CYRUS PECK, Assistant Secretary.

New York, Office 109 Broadway.

We have taken the agency of the above named Insurance Company for Rock County, and intend either personally or by sub-agents to canvass the whole county soliciting business in its behalf. It is a stock company, and ranks among the most successful and reliable institutions in New York. Dividing 75 per cent of its net profits among its participating policyholders, makes it one of the most desirable companies to which to insure. It has taken on merchandise, buildings, and all household property at the customary rates.

PORTER'S "Photograph Parlors." This has now become one of the fixed institutions of Janesville. The unbounded success which has attended these rooms since their opening, has more than met our most sanguine expectations, and a new "hall" seems to be demanded.

Extending thanks to the entire community for THE LIBERAL PATRONAGE bestowed upon this institution, and the just appreciation given to our work, it is our desire to enable us by an increase of business to keep the prices of Pictures within the reach of all.

For be it known that, despite that person who thinks pictures are high—pictures, good pictures are the cheapest commodity in market.

We shall strive hard to please all, though we cannot promise always to do it. But we will promise always to give you a good, life-like picture, and do it with the most reliable materials.

STEREOSCOPES and Stereoscopic Views of local scenes for sale at these rooms. We are also prepared to take Stereoscopic pictures of single objects or groups.
